Dear Whitney:

I was really touched by your letter of 11 June.

My respect, affection, and admiration for Bill is such that I could and would not have done otherwise than I have, and I only wish that there was more that I could do. Certainly, if anything occurs in this respect to you, which I may have overlooked, I would sincerely appreciate it if you would let me know, and again my thanks and appreciation for your thought in writing.

As ever,
